The two-seater Original Settee Rocker by North Carolina's Uwharrie Chair Company is double the fun of a standard rocking chair. $998; uwharriechair.com

The double-edged Wando Fillet Knife from South Carolina knife maker Chris Williams is part workhorse, part work of art. $295; williamsknife.com

Typically, dog beds don't make a style statement, but the Swiss Camp Dog Bed from Bella Bean Couture does, thanks to a design sewn from repurposed (and very chic) Swiss Army blankets. Large (shown here), $260; bellabeancouture.com
